Maryland a home of worldly Pleasures

by Cindy Deubler

Many wouldn't recognize Fast Pleasure's name. The nicely bred daughter of Seattle Slew's Grade 1-winning son Fast Play out of a mare by What a Pleasure was a hard-knocking Maryland-bred who had a long career on the track, with many races in the lower level claiming ranks.

She eventually retired to a broodmare band on a small farm in Baltimore County. The story could be the story of many other mares who make up the backbone of the Thoroughbred industry.

But then Fast Pleasure produced a stakes winner, Worldly Pleasure, who in turn produced Game On Dude, one of the top handicap horses in the nation in 2011 and a contender for an Eclipse Award.

Thus Fast Pleasure adds yet another chapter to the Thoroughbred book proving a good horse can be just one mating away.

The late trainer Barbara (Bobby) Kees and longtime client Bob Ingham saw some promise in Fast Pleasure as a 3-year-old.

"Bobby wanted to claim her," recalls Ingham, "and we did well with her, as long as the rider didn't hit her."

Fast Pleasure, described by Kees's daughter, Sherry Rudolph, as "tall, long and lean" proved most successful at longer distances. Forty-two times the dark bay mare started. She won 10, eight for Ingham. All her victories were at a mile and a sixteenth.

Game On Dude put his Maryland roots on display with a runner-up finish in the Breeders' Cup Classic-G1 for trainer Bob Baffert. The son of Worldly Pleasure is a leading candidate for an Eclipse Award.

"She wanted the lead," said Rudolph. "She always wanted to be in front." Which caused concern for a number of riders, who went to the whip to keep the mare in position as others closed in.

"But she had quirks," said Ingham. "She wouldn't run if you whipped her. So Bobby took the whip away from the riders when Fast Pleasure ran—because if she saw it, she'd stop."

Bred by Joseph Keelty's Dumbarton Farm, Fast Pleasure made her debut in maiden special weight company in August of her 2-year-old season at Pimlico. Unsuccessful in her first three starts, she made a descent down the ladder, and finally broke through with a victory, in May 1995, in her first start beyond a mile for an $8,500 tag. Two weeks later, when risked for $11,500—a race she won by 11 lengths—Kees dropped the slip.

Fast Pleasure struggled once again in allowance company, and finally won when in for a $6,500 tag in late September. Six weeks later, in the 10th start of her 3-year-old season, she was taken from Ingham and Kees for $8,500.

Rudolph, a former pony-girl at the track who became her mother's assistant, wanted the mare back. "I liked to gallop her. She was one of my favorites to gallop," said Rudolph. "She had a good way of going, was sound and was a race horse. . . she tried. That's why I wanted her back." The mare was also bombproof: "I could take her cross country, she'd go anywhere," added Rudolph.

Twice Fast Pleasure was claimed away from Kees' barn, and twice they got her back, the final time for $6,500 in 1996. The mare proved solid at the $5,000 level throughout 1997, when she won or placed in seven of 10 starts, and eventually proved capable in allowance company.

Fast Pleasure was bred during the spring of 1998, made a couple more starts, and concluded her racing career in May with a lifetime bankroll of $85,002. She headed to Kees' Road's End Farm in Sparks in foal to Roanoke.

Fast Pleasure produced her first foal, Middleburg, in March 1999, for a partnership of Kees, Rudolph and Ingham. Ingham then selected the next breeding, to Devil His Due. "I liked his sire," noted Ingham. The Kentucky-based son of Devil's Bag was one of the best handicap horses of the mid-1990s. His first crop was just coming to the races when Fast Pleasure made the trip to Kentucky. She produced Worldly Pleasure at Road's End the following March.

Rudolph wasn't overly impressed with Ingham's foal. "She was ugly—body wise she was okay, but she had an ugly head." As Worldly Pleasure grew up, she offered challenges. "She didn't work that well and didn't want to train," added Rudolph.

Never wanting to push their horses, Kees and Ingham waited until January 2003 to send Worldly Pleasure out for her first start. Off the board in that $25,000 maiden claiming race, she returned two months later and finished second at the $16,000 level. The stakes were higher next out, and there were no takers for $40,000.

Two subpar efforts in maiden special company prompted a drop to $25,000 at the end of May. She won, but was snatched by owner/trainer John Alecci.

"We didn't want to lose her that quick. We hardly had a chance to find out if she was a race horse," said Rudolph.

Alecci would continue to risk Worldly Pleasure in claiming races, although at a higher level, and twice tested her in stakes company that year. Failing miserably in the first attempt in August, she turned in a career effort that

December, when winning the Politely Stakes for Maryland-bred 3-year-old fillies.

Alecci continued to race the dark bay filly through the summer of her 4-year-old season, then sold her privately to Barry Ostrager, at the time the principal owner of Questroyal Stud in New York.

Worldly Pleasure was well travelled by the time she was retired in February 2005, having started at eight tracks, her final starts coming at Tampa Bay Downs. Acquired by Adena Springs, she produced her first foal, by Smart Strike, in April 2006. Bred that spring to Adena Springs' stallion Awesome Again, she delivered Game On Dude one year later.

Worldly Pleasure has since become a world traveller. Adena Springs sold her, in foal to champion Macho Uno, for $15,000 at the 2009 Keeneland November sale, where she was purchased by Korean interests. She produced a colt in Korea in 2010.

Game On Dude was offered at the 2008 Keeneland September yearling sale, where he failed to reach his reserve at $210,000. After making his first three career starts at Gulfstream Park in the winter of his 3-year-old year with trainer Michael Mariena for Kuehne Racing, he was sent to Bob Baffert's California barn. Winner of the Grade 3 Lone Star Derby that May, Game On Dude finished a solid fourth in the Belmont Stakes-G1 in his final start of the year.

In 2011, Game On Dude hit the board in seven of eight starts. His victories included the Grade 1 Santa Anita Handicap and Goodwood Stakes, but his finest hour may have been his second in the Breeders' Cup Classic-G1 after leading until the shadow of the wire. Demonstrating a running style familiar to his granddam, Game On Dude is often seen on or close to the lead. He missed by a nose to First Dude in the Hollywood Gold Cup after leading throughout. With earnings of $1,917,400 in 2011, Game On Dude increased his lifetime total to $2,134,658 from 14 starts.

Rudolph, who took over ownership of Fast Pleasure in 2000, bred six more foals out of the mare, including solid allowance runner Please the Crowd, an earner of $138,971. In 2004, Ingham leased the mare to breed her to Outflanker, and she produced the colt Out to Please. A winner for Ingham, Out to Please was eventually claimed away, and is Fast Pleasure's only other stakes horse after finishing second in the Deputed Testimony Starter Handicap at Pimlico in 2009.

"Fast Pleasure had very large foals," noted Rudolph, and a number found homes as hunters/jumpers. Her son by Allen's Prospect, Major Price, won on the flat and over timber. The mare produced three fillies, including her final foal, a daughter of Dance With Ravens born in 2009 named Dance for Pleasure, who was injured and hasn't raced.

Fast Pleasure was a tough mare to deal with, according to Rudolph, who described her personality as horrible, especially when she was out in the field. With age catching up with her, Fast Pleasure was put down at age 18 in 2010.

Rudolph, who sold Dance for Pleasure as a broodmare prospect, marvels at the accomplishments of Worldly Pleasure. "It's amazing she produced a Grade 1 winner." 🐾

Ask the Moon brings $800,000 at Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November Mixed

ADAM COGLIANESE

Over a whirlwind couple of days in November, 2011 multiple Grade 1 winner Ask the Moon went from the Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic-G1 on Friday to the sales ring on Sunday. The daughter of Malibu Moon, the only Maryland-bred in Fasig-Tipton Kentucky's boutique November Mixed sale on November 6, sold for $800,000 to the international commercial breeding operation of SF Bloodstock LLC. She was consigned with Taylor Made Sales Agency, for owner Farnsworth Stables.

The Maryland-bred champion 2-year-old filly of 2007 and a leading contender for 2011 Maryland-bred Horse of the Year honors, Ask the Moon was bred by Charles and Cynthia McGinnes in partnership with the Pons family's Country Life Farm. It was Country Life's connection with Malibu Moon, who launched his stud career at the Bel Air breeding establishment, that allowed the McGinneses' mare Always Asking to be bred to the rising stallion star in 2004.

Ask the Moon campaigned for owner Millicent Johnsen after being purchased by trainer Ned Allard out of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's March 2-year-olds in training sale for $125,000. She made all but five of her starts for Johnsen, the final time at Belmont Park on June 15, 2011, in an optional claiming race where trainer Gary Contessa took the mare for $75,000 for Farnsworth.

Marty Wolfson became the trainer of record for Ask the Moon for her first start in Grade 1 company, the Ruffian Invitational Handicap on July 31 at Saratoga, which the bay mare won after leading at every call. She followed with a victory in Saratoga's Personal Ensign Invitational Stakes-G1 on September 3 in similar fashion.

In her final start, Ask the Moon was close in the early running of the Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic before fading in the stretch to finish sixth, six and a half lengths behind winner Royal Delta. In all, Ask the Moon made 34 starts, winning 10, with five seconds and seven thirds, and earned $713,640. 🐾

Weanling leads Maryland-breds at Keeneland November sale

A weanling filly by More Than Ready, bred in Maryland by Finale Farm and Mr. and Mrs. David Moose, brought a final bid of $200,000 at the second session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale on November 8.

Ellen Charles was the successful bidder for the half-sister to multiple stakes-winnignig $549,415-earner Crossing Point and additional stakes winners Love Happy and My Boy Kyle.

Consigned with Dark Hollow, agent, the six-figure filly is out of the Greinton (GB) mare Clap Happy; her second dam, stakes winner Applause, produced black-type winners Jazz and Favored Lady, the latter the granddam of 2011 Grade 1 Prioress Stakes winner and Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint-G1 third-place finisher Her Smile.

The top price among broodmares foaled in Maryland was the young Smart Strike mare Smart Music. Consigned by Bill Reightler, the now 5-year-old was purchased by Claiborne Farm Bloodstock for $160,000.

Out of graded winner Illeria (by Stop the Music), Smart Music is a half-sister to eight stakes horses, including Grade 1-winning millionaire and successful sire Include. A placed runner of $30,080, Smart Music was sold carrying her first foal after being bred to Harlan's Holiday. 🐾

Squan Song Stakes

$60,000-guaranteed, 7 fur., registered Maryland-bred fillies and mares, 3 & up, non-winners of a sweepstakes. Laurel Park, Nov. 12.

Dk.b./br.f., 2008, by Lion Hearted—Tamayo, by Tamayaz. Bred and owned by Rosalee C. Davison; trained by Francis P. Campitelli. Foaled at Chanceland Farm, West Friendship, Md.

2011: 1st $60,000 Squan Song S, 7 fur., registered Md.-bred fillies and mares, 3 & up, non-winners of a sweepstakes, Laurel, Nov. 12; 2nd Twixt S.

The family of Rosalee Davison's wonderful producer Gracefully has been churning out runners for four generations. The most recent rising star is Art of the Hunt, a daughter of Lion Hearted who closed with a flourish to capture the competitive $60,000 Squan Song Stakes at Laurel Park on November 12.

Fifth at the top of the stretch, Art of the Hunt was altered six-wide for racing room by jockey Luis Garcia and got to the wire a half-length to the better of Lily Quatorze. Campaign Vows finished third in the seven-furlong test for Maryland-bred fillies and mares who had never won a stakes race, followed by Profit, Terra Rolla, Side by Side, On Board Charade, Grandiloquent, Gilhooly's Super and Triple Pick.

Art of the Hunt covered the distance in 1:25.33 and paid $9.60 as the second-choice.

"She was just waiting for me to ask," Garcia said. "I knew I had a lot of horse but needed to find a hole because the wire was getting closer and closer. It opened at the right time and we got there."

Frannie Campitelli trains Art of the Hunt, who came into the Squan Song off of two solid efforts in October: a fourth in the Maryland Million Oaks on October 1, and a late closing, runner-up finish in the Twixt Stakes three weeks later, both restricted to 3-year-olds.

"She came out of the last race exceptionally well and made us point for this spot," Campitelli said. "I was getting a little worried because every time Luis moved the hole closed but when she got free, she made a nice run."

Art of the Hunt, who increased her record to 4-of-12 with earnings of $114,870, is the first stakes horse for her dam, Tamayo, a stakes-placed daughter of Tamayaz. The dam of five foals, Tamayo was bred to Lion Hearted three times and produced additional winners Lion in the Sun ($215,425) and Lion Drawing ($45,580). The cross had been successful for Davison before, as Tamayo is a half-sister to the Lion Hearted filly Hear Us Roar, the Maryland-bred champion 2-year-old filly of 2004 after winning the Selima Stakes and Maryland Million Lassie.

All descend from Gracefully, the first broodmare Rosalee Davison and her husband Richard ever owned. Purchased in 1969, Gracefully produced three stakes horses for the Davisons, including 1981 Eclipse Award-winning sprinter Guilty Conscience.

Concealed Identity

Find Handicap

$60,000-guaranteed, 1½ mi., turf, registered Maryland-breds, 3 & up. Laurel Park, Nov. 5.

B.g., 2008, by Smarty Jones—Richetta, by Polish Numbers. Bred by Bowman and Higgins Stable and Patricia L. Chapman; owned by Linda S. Gaudet and Morris Bailey; trained by Edmond D. Gaudet. Foaled at Dance Forth Farm, Chestertown, Md.

Lifetime

2010: 1st $50,000 Maryland Juvenile Championship S, 7½ fur., registered Md.-bred 2-year-olds, Laurel, Dec. 18. 2011: 1st $75,000 Federico Tesio S (includes $25,000 Md.-bred Fund), 1½ mi., 3-year-olds, Pimlico, May 7; $60,000 Find H, 1½ mi., turf, registered Md.-breds, 3 & up, Laurel, Nov. 5; 2nd Pegasus S-G3; 3rd Jennings H.

Concealed Identity has found a true calling on the grass after a successful run on the main track earlier in 2011. The only 3-year-old in the field of six who contested the $60,000 Find Handicap for Maryland-bred runners on November 5 at Laurel Park, Concealed Identity romped home to win by four lengths in his first turf stakes try.

Owned by Linda Gaudet and Morris Bailey and trained by Eddie Gaudet, the 1-2 favorite covered the nine-furlong distance over the good turf in 1:53.61. Monument Hill took second and front-runner Dream Louise held on to be third, followed by Day Flight, Sir Rabbit and Lucky Will.

"He has really grown up and I am really proud of him," said winning rider Sheldon Russell. "He has really taken to the turf."

In his only other outing on the grass, Russell and Concealed Identity teamed up to win easily in allowance company on October 5. Earlier in the year, the duo joined forces to take the Federico Tesio Stakes at Pimlico on the main track in early May in an upset over eventual Belmont Stakes-G1 winner Ruler On Ice. That effort led his connections to run in the Preakness Stakes-G1, in which the Smarty Jones gelding finished 10th with Russell riding.

Over the summer, Concealed Identity finished second to Pants On Fire in Monmouth Park's Grade 3 Pegasus Stakes. At 2, he won the Maryland Juvenile Championship Stakes.

"He is really a nice horse to be around," said Eddie Gaudet. "We thought he would take to the turf and we are tickled to death. He did this effortlessly today. We had fun with him on the dirt and now this might be a second act for him."

Gaudet announced earlier in the week that he planned to retire from training at the end of the year, with his 23-year-old daughter Lacey taking over the Bowie Training Center barn. The 81-year-old finished third among Maryland trainers, behind King Leatherbury and Dale Capuano, for three straight years in the mid-1990s and has 1,730 victories in a career that began in 1959.

"I will still be hanging around the barn but it is time," said Gaudet, who won the 1971 Black-Eyed Susan with At Arms Length and the 1991 General George Handicap-G2 with Star Touch (Fr). "Lacey wants to pursue this as a career and was really ready years ago. She is a great horsewoman and they [Lacey and Linda] have been doing a great deal of the work for quite some time."

"We have talked about this for a long time," added Lacey Gaudet, who was the trainer of record for the barn at Colonial Downs in 2007. "Everybody knows he is 80 years old and trains for our family and Mr. Bailey so it is difficult getting new clients. But his success is going to help me."

Team Gaudet plans on running Concealed Identity on the grass this winter, with Tampa Bay Downs as the likely destination. Until then, the colt remains in Maryland, and reappeared at Laurel on December 3 to finish third to older runners Eighttofastto catch and Indian Dance in the Jennings Handicap. That effort boosted his career line to 6-1-1 from 15 starts, for earnings of $233,840.

Bred by Bowman and Higgins Stable and Patricia L. Chapman, Concealed Identity is the second foal, and first stakes winner, out of four-time stakes winner Richetta (by Polish Numbers).

Eighttofastto catch

Jennings Handicap
$75,000-guaranteed, 1 mi., registered Maryland-breds, 3 & up. Laurel Park, Dec. 3.

Ch.g., 2006, by Not For Love—Too Fast to Catch, by Nice Catch. Bred by Dark Hollow Farm and Herringswell Stable; owned by Sylvia E. Heft; trained by Timothy L. Keefe. Foaled at Dark Hollow Farm, Upperco, Md.

Johnson Memorial S. (includes $25,000 Md.-bred Fund), 1½ mi., 3 & up, Laurel, March 26; $75,000 Japan Racing Association S. (includes $25,000 Md.-bred Fund), 1 mi., 3 & up, Laurel, Sept. 10; $150,000 Maryland Million Classic S., 1½ mi., 3 & up, sired by eligible Md. stallions, Laurel, Oct. 1; $75,000 Jennings H., 1 mi., registered Md.-breds, 3 & up, Laurel, Dec. 3; 2nd Joseph French Memorial S.

Sylvia Heft's Eighttofastto catch proved just too fast to catch as he led from start to finish in the $75,000 Jennings Handicap for Maryland-bred runners on a sunny afternoon at Laurel Park on December 3.

First away from the gate under Sheldon Russell, the son of Not For Love opened up on his five rivals through the turn, where Russell gave him a breather until the pack began to close in. Then, with just a little urging, Eighttofastto catch spurted away to a four and a quarter-length victory in 1:35.76 for the one-mile distance. Indian Dance finished second, three lengths over the only 3-year-old in the race, Concealed Identity. London Lane, Shordawatyadri and Regal Solo completed the field.

Tim Keefe trains Eighttofastto catch, a winner of five races during his 5-year-old campaign in 2011, all at Laurel, including the Maryland Million Classic, Harrison Johnson Memorial and Japan Racing Association Stakes. Of his career total $391,190, $266,200 was earned during the season.

"Tim and I spoke about it, and it looked on paper he was the fastest horse, even under rating, so as soon as the gates opened I just took one hold and got him to relax as much as I could. He enjoyed it," said Russell. "I was making sure that when I was on the lead I didn't have anybody surprise me, so when I felt them coming close behind me I just made sure I had my horse's attention and at the top of the lane he gave me everything he had."

"We were hoping for a good effort today," said Keefe. "The intention was to get him to relax and settle and he has. With no speed in here we thought more than likely we'd be in front. He was able to go slow enough and rate on the front end."

Eighttofastto catch paid $3.80 as the 9-10 favorite. The handsome chestnut, bred by Dark Hollow Farm and Herringswell Stable, is out of the Nice Catch mare Too Fast to Catch, the dam of a dozen winners, including additional stakes horses Storm Punch, a stakes winner and Grade 1-placed earner of $310,619, and Southern Man. Too Fast to Catch's final foal, the current 3-year-old McNair and Adger, broke his maiden at Charles Town a few hours after Eighttofastto catch's Jennings score.

MRMA presents awards and scholarships

The Maryland Racing Media Association's annual crab feast and awards night at Laurel Park on November 19 included a number of special honors. MRMA president Stan Salter made two of the biggest presentations. Above: University of Pennsylvania veterinary student Alexandra Curtiss received the $3,000 Eddie McMullen Memorial Scholarship. The $3,000 Lucy Acton Memorial Scholarship for service went to Ohio State veterinary student Lauren Mundy. In all, 26 students received $30,000 in scholarships at the event, which helped raise money for the scholarship fund (which benefits college students who work in Maryland's Thoroughbred industry). Left: Katherine Acton accepted the Humphrey S. Finney Award for lifetime contributions to the Maryland horse racing industry, for her mother, Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred editor Lucy Acton, who passed away in June 2011.

MARYLAND-BRED STAKES WINNERS

G'day G'day gets his way in Pennsylvania Hunt Cup timber

Magalen O. Bryant's G'day G'day got his first timber stakes win on November 6 when he swooped to victory in the Pennsylvania Hunt Cup, winning by six and three-quarters lengths over Bon Caddo. Private Attack, the 2011 Maryland Hunt Cup winner, finished sixth of seven.

The victory in the four-mile Pennsylvania Hunt Cup, which G'day G'day completed in 9:23.40, was his second on the Unionville course, following an allowance score at last year's meet. A son of the late Maryland sire Eastern Echo, G'day G'day launched his career on the flat, but has found a home over jumps. All three of his wins have been in National Steeplechase Association races, his first coming over hurdles at Colonial Downs in April 2008. Transitioned to timber, he was second in the New Jersey Hunt Cup in 2010, and had placings in two timber stakes in 2011—the National Sporting Library Chronicle Cup and International Gold Cup—in his two starts leading up to the Pennsylvania Hunt Cup. Paddy Young has teamed up with G'day G'day for each of his last three starts.

Trained by Doug Fout, G'day G'day, now 9, has earned $81,675 from 30 lifetime starts. Out of Say Farewell, by Second Bar, G'day G'day is a third-generation homebred for Bryant.

Not Abroad dominates tough Swatara Stakes

Producing a rally that took him from nearly a dozen lengths off the pace to five lengths on top, Timothy Cunningham's Not Abroad ran away in Penn National's $75,000 Swatara Stakes over Norman Asbjornson. Graded stakes winner Redding Colliery, the even-money favorite, was sixth in the November 23 test.

Sent out by trainer Michael Petro with Nicholas Petro aboard, Not Abroad completed a mile and a sixteenth in 1:44.02.

The Maryland-bred champion 3-year-old of 2010, Not Abroad boosted his career mark to 26-6-10-3, and has earned $406,150. The Swatara was his second stakes win in his last three starts, after taking the $84,000 DTHA Governors Day Stakes at Delaware Park on September 10 in which he defeated 2010 Breeders' Cup Marathon-G3 winner Eldaafer. Sandwiched in between was a third-place finish in the Maryland Million Classic Stakes.

Not Abroad has finished second or third in eight stakes during his career, including four runner-up performances at 3 in the Grade 3 Discovery Handicap, Maryland Million Classic, Brandywine and Barbaro Stakes. He was also second in the Maryland Juvenile Championship in his stakes debut.

Purchased by Cunningham for $25,000 at the 2008 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Eastern Fall Yearling sale, Not Abroad is out of Timely Broad, by Broad Brush, a mare Cunningham campaigned to win or place in nine stakes in the 1990s. Winner of the Sabin Handicap-G3, and an earner of $342,351, Timely Broad was sold by Cunningham at the 1999 Keeneland November sale, where Overbrook Farm purchased her for $450,000.

Timely Broad's first two stakes performers from seven foals are both by leading Maryland sire Not For Love. Tom and Chris Bowman and Milton Higgins purchased Timely Broad at the 2004 Keeneland November sale, when in foal to Aldebaran, for $170,000. That foal, the filly Halcyon, is a winner of four races and $99,433 in 13 starts.

Not Abroad and his year-younger full sister, 2011 Maryland Million Oaks winner Brushed by Love, were bred by Bowman and Higgins Stable, Thomas Sutton and Huckleberry Farm LLC. Timely Broad has a 2-year-old filly by Medallist, who failed to reach her reserve at last October's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Eastern Fall Yearling sale.

Poseidon's Warrior records third stakes win of 2011 season

The reputation of Swilcan Stable's Poseidon's Warrior continued to grow as one of the best 3-year-old sprinters in the nation in 2011 when he recorded his third stakes win of the year in the $75,000 Le Bagoter Stakes at Penn National on the evening of November 23.

Facing three other sophomores after three scratches in the mid-week stakes, Poseidon's Warrior overhauled pacesetter Royal Currier, who set opening fractions of :21.69, :44.10 and :56.71, and cruised home to win by three and a half lengths as the 4-5 favorite. Trained by Robert "Butch" Reid Jr. and ridden by Frankie Pennington, Poseidon's Warrior stopped the clock in 1:09.67.

In his previous start, Poseidon's Warrior defeated older runners in Delaware Park's New Castle Stakes; he also captured Penn National's $100,000 East Hanover Stakes in July. Every one of his four wins last year had been at six furlongs—his victory in a June allowance at Parx in a dazzling 1:08.18 earned him an identical 101 Beyer speed figure as in the Le Bagoter.

Also second in the $250,000 Gallant Bob Stakes on September 24 to Royal Currier, who set a new track record in the Parx test, Poseidon's Warrior has compiled a 13-6-2-1 record for earnings of $384,917. During his 2-year-old season, the dark bay son of Speightstown won the Monmouth Park NATC Futurity and placed in two stakes in five starts.

Bred by Dark Hollow Farm and William P. Beatson, Poseidon's Warrior is the final foal out of Poised to Pounce (by Smarten), a winning half-sister to seven-time stakes winner Smart 'n Quick. A half-brother to stakes winners Play Bingo (2001, c., by Polish Numbers; $455,240, Maryland Million Classic, etc.) and Quick 'n Smart (1996, f., by Polish Numbers; $156,820, Seton Hall S, etc.) and stakes-placed $279,370-earner Rhythmn Master, Poseidon's Warrior sold for $90,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-year-olds in training sale.

Wanganui jumps to division crown at Colonial Cup

The Fields Stable's Wanganui gained his second consecutive hurdle stakes victory with a one and a quarter-length victory in the $25,000 Raymond G. Woolfe Memorial Hurdle in Camden, S.C., on November 19. The son of Love of Money turned back five others under Paddy Young in the two-mile test for 3-year-olds over National fences. Trained by Tom Voss, Wanganui had annexed the Gladstone Hurdle Stakes at Far Hills on October 22 in his previous start, which was also the chestnut gelding's first win. From four career starts, Wanganui has two wins and one second, for earnings of $37,404.

Bred by Voss' wife Mimi, Wanganui is out of Distant Drumroll, by Eastern Echo, a full sister to Brigade of Guards, a three-time graded stakes winner over hurdles who amassed $228,090. Distant Drumroll produced as her second foal Guelph (by Sky Classic), a winner of seven stakes over hurdles and earner of $220,754 during her career. Guelph was named Maryland-bred champion steeplechaser in 2005.

Join the Horse Force at 16th annual Polar Bear Plunge

The Maryland Million has created an official team to support the Maryland Special Olympics' Polar Bear Plunge, to be held on Saturday, January 28 at Sandy Point State Park in Annapolis.

The 16th annual event, which grows in popularity every year, benefits Maryland's children and adults with intellectual disabilities, as they enjoy the life-changing benefits of participating with Special Olympics Maryland.

Maryland's racing community can support the event by making the plunge, scheduled for 1 p.m., with the Maryland Million Horse Force team. Or for those who want to stay warm and dry, donations may be made in the name of the team.

Visit <http://plunge2012.kintera.org/marylandmillion> to donate, or go to team listing and click Maryland Million Horse Force to sign up for the plunge. Maryland's Thoroughbred industry will also have a booth at the event. For more information, contact Anne Pennington (410) 252-2100 x114 or Tina Walters at extension 125.
