Dear Owner, Breeder and Stallion Owner:

Maryland Bred Fund bonuses are for Maryland-bred horses. The Maryland Bred Fund is designed to reward you for your commitment to foaling, raising and racing your horses in Maryland.

First things first, your horses must be foaled in Maryland. And they have to be registered as Maryland-bred with the Maryland Horse Breeders Association. They have to race in Maryland. If you meet those qualifications, and as an owner you have a winner of a maiden, allowance or selected claiming race, you are going get a bonus check from the Maryland Bred Fund. You can bet on it, you can take that to the bank. . . for within two weeks of the race the Maryland Horse Breeders Association sends out bonus checks.

In short, the Maryland Bred Fund rewards owners, breeders and stallion owners for racing success in the state.

Created by the General Assembly in 1962, the Maryland Bred Fund is the oldest state-bred fund in the country. Currently, it pays winning owners a 17.5 percent bonus on top of the purse for victories in maiden, allowance and claiming races of $20,000 or more. Breeders get the same payout, but for a win in any race at a Maryland track, or for finishing second, third or fourth in stakes races.

Specifically, a victory in a $41,000 allowance/optional claiming race at Laurel or Pimlico can mean $4,000 additional to an owner or $8,000 additional to an owner/breeder—if the winner is a Maryland-bred.

Of course we think you are already a winner if you own a Maryland-bred, but now you can see—in print—the approximate amount of the bonus that you will receive when you enter. It has been added in black and white in the condition book. So with a quick glance, as an owner or breeder you can determine the amount of the check you will be getting from the Maryland Bred Fund.

Most of you have gotten these checks in the past when your Maryland-bred has won, and you will continue to get checks for winning efforts in the future.

Having the bonus payout listed in print started with this spring's Pimlico condition book. The amount to be paid from the Maryland Bred Fund to the winning owner (and the same amount to the breeder) is shown next to the purse amount.

The Maryland Bred Fund bonus program has always paid these bonuses, but now it is displayed in the condition book. The Maryland Horse Breeders Association sends Maryland Bred Fund checks to the owners, breeders and stallion owners, as described in detail above, every two weeks.

We think you made the right choice to breed, own and race a Maryland-bred. We look forward to sending these bonus checks out as much—well almost as much—as you look forward to getting them. It is our job and we take it very seriously.

Best of luck with your Maryland-bred horses. And make sure we know where to send those checks!

Sincerely,
Cricket Goodall
MHBA Executive Director

Action Andy sets track record

Making his third start of the year on March 10, Robert Gerczak's Action Andy proved once again his affinity for Tampa Bay Downs by setting a track record for 6½ furlongs in 1:15.47, slicing .57 of a second off the previous mark.

Facing six others as the even-money favorite in the sixth race, a handicap in which he was assigned top weight of 121 pounds, Action Andy gave backers a scare when the field headed into the far turn. Stalking the early pace (:22.90, :45.02, 1:08.98), the son of Gators N Bears began to drift back as the leaders rounded the turn. Moving through along the rail, Action Andy, with Daniel Coa up, rallied down the stretch and drove past pacesetter Tommy's Memory late, winning by a length and a half.

Five times Action Andy has won at Tampa Bay from seven starts over the past two seasons—he also has two seconds. The Carlos A. Garcia-trained runner accounted for Tampa Bay's Super Stakes and Pelican Stakes in his two prior outings. In getting his third win in as many tries this year, he increased his lifetime earnings to $206,870.

Bred in Maryland by Carol Kaye, Action Andy is the first foal out of Love Me Twice (by Not For Love), a half-sister to stakes winners Baltimore Bob ($377,217, Da Hoss S, etc.), Baltimore Belle ($359,064, Maryland Million Oaks, etc.) and Gabianna ($136,610, The Very One S). Baltimore Belle finished second in Laurel Park's Conniver Stakes later that same hour.

Juveniles in the spotlight at OBS sale

Three Maryland-bred juveniles sold at the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's March Sale of Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training on March 13 and 14, with two bringing six figures.

A Medaglia d'Oro colt out of Open Flirt (by A.P. Indy) sold for $125,000. The colt failed to reach his reserve in the ring, but WinStar Farm made an offer shortly after and purchased a half-interest, with David and JoAnn Hayden's Dark Hollow Farm, Arnold and Susie Davidov and David and Alena Schwaber taking the other half (each have a one-sixth interest).

Dark Hollow bred the colt in partnership with Arnold Davidov, Alice Wolf and the Schwabers, and sent Open Flirt's bay son through the sale with the Niall Brennan Stables consignment. A half-brother to recent Gulfstream Park maiden special weight winner Town Flirt (sold as a 2-year-old in 2010 for $200,000), the Medaglia d'Oro colt will be managed by WinStar, whose horses are based with Bill Mott and Todd Pletcher.

"We're thrilled to be associated with WinStar," said David Hayden on establishing a relationship with the Kentucky-based operation. "The colt is a big, two-turn horse—he's going to mature to 16.2 hands."

Also sold by Niall Brennan Stables for Dark Hollow Farm, Dorsey and Christine Brown and Arnold Davidov, was a Stormy Atlantic filly out of stakes winner Touchnow (by Pleasant Tap). West Point Thoroughbreds Inc. purchased the filly for $100,000 and will send her to trainer Graham Motion.

Jay Williamson: A passion for collecting

by Muffy Fenwick

It all started 38 years ago with a stop at the post office. There, Jay Williamson, an avid horseman and longtime employee at the Maryland Jockey Club tracks, spotted a mounted poster of a multi-colored profile of a horse mid-stride. The poster announced the release of a newly penned stamp to commemorate the 100th running of the Kentucky Derby on May 4, 1974. Williamson convinced the employees at the post office to give him the poster, and so began his passion for collecting.

Today, Williamson has amassed a collection of horse memorabilia that covers nearly every inch of his three-story Reisterstown home. The collection represents his love of horses and his own personal history in racing. Relics range from posters to magazine and program covers, to games, souvenirs, figurines and trophies. When asked to define the collection, he points to the horses and emphasizes, "it's all history."

Indeed, Williamson's collection reflects his own history as well as the history of North American racing. To highlight this, he saved his first saddle and the accompanying program from his first pony race, at the 1948 Baltimore County Humane Society Pony Show. Flipping through the worn pages, names from today's racing circuit surface: Clinton Pitts, Frank Bonsal Jr., Irv Naylor, and Jay and Ben Griswold. Like the 5-year-old Williamson and his mount, Beauty, the names signify the inception of many notable racing careers.

Williamson has devoted much of his life to horses. He began working at Charles Town in the 1950s, "when the starting gate was still pulled by horses." His career has continued ever since, with only a brief hiatus at the Sol Levinson Funeral Home, and these days you can find him at Laurel and Pimlico.

Williamson is less comfortable talking about himself than his memorabilia. He searches local auctions and flea markets for anything horse related. Auctioneers Rick Opfer, Steve Dance and Frank Russo provide some of the best finds. One shelf in his basement houses a collection of silver racing cups Williamson procured from Russo. When asked why he chose them, he reasons, if he did not, someone else would have and they would have undoubtedly been lost. Consistent with most of his collection, Williamson's goal seems to be one of preservation and posterity.

He has unearthed programs, posters and other souvenirs at auctions – painstakingly framing and displaying them. He especially loves advertisements for Woodbine Racetrack in Canada, clever images of trotters chasing a money truck or a jockey using a Labatt's box as a mounting block.

Amidst these images are those of his career at the racetrack. One such depicts Williamson among the jockeys, valets, and trainers at the closing day at Bowie. Juxtaposed with this image is a framed Mid-Week Pictorial of Bowie from November 29, 1923, he discovered nestled between newspapers at a local auction house.

Williamson is generous with his collection, offering vintage posters to the offices at Pimlico during Preakness Week. Asked if there is any artifact for which he still searches, he shrugs, "There is nothing I don't have or wish I did." Instead, he continues his tour, mentioning recent additions like a 1902 double-sided poster of an ad from the Chicago Clipper depicting "Stewart's Patent Cut Gear Machine," an innovation unveiled at the turn of the century. Williamson purchased the ad for $100 at a recent auction at Alex Cooper Auctioneers. He displays it prominently on an easel in his living room.

He marvels at the discoveries he makes each day within his own house. Sounding like a man who spends plenty of time at auctions and flea markets, Williamson reasons "You've always got to look. There is always something out there."

MARYLAND FUND STAKES RECAP

JIM MCCUE (2)

Bold Affair

Conniver Stakes

$75,000-guaranteed, 7 fur., registered Maryland-bred fillies and mares, 3 & up. Laurel Park, March 10.

Ch.f., 2008, by Two Punch—Hunka Hunka Lori Z, by Colonial Affair. Bred and owned by Mike Zanella and Charles Reed; trained by Howard E. Wolfendale. Foaled at Green Willow Farms, Westminster, Md.

Lifetime
starts	1st	2nd	3rd	earnings
9	5 (2)	1	2 (2)	$257,880	(through March 10)

2011: 1st $200,000 Jostle S, 6½ fur., 3-year-old fillies, Parx, June 11; 3rd Dearly Precious S, Miss Preakness S. 2012: 1st $75,000 Conniver S, 7 fur., registered Md.-bred fillies and mares, 3 & up, Laurel, March 10.

Charles Reed and Mike Zanella's homebred filly Bold Affair zipped to the front, opened a clear advantage, and dominated the $75,000 Conniver Stakes on March 10 at Laurel Park, winning by 6½ lengths. Last year's Maryland-bred champion 3-year-old filly completed seven furlongs in 1:23.74 and earned a 99 Beyer speed figure.

Trained by Howard Wolfendale, Bold Affair left the gate as the 6-5 favorite under jockey Abel Castellano in the field of 10 Maryland-bred fillies and mares. Second-choice Baltimore Belle rallied for second while never threatening the winner, with Music Please finishing third, followed by Heaven's Voice, Terra Rolla, Sound It Out, Lily Quatorze, Access to Charlie, Art of the Hunt and Overnight Fling.

"I was very impressed," Castellano said. "I was waiting for the other horses to come, especially around the turn. I was wondering 'where is everybody' but she kept going. When I got to the quarter pole I asked her to go and again there was nobody coming."

"I didn't think she would run that big," added Wolfendale. "I was waiting for her to start backing up but she kept going. It is a pleasure to train a horse as talented as that. Good horses make good trainers."

"She is a great big filly with a big stride," said Castellano. "I had a lot of confidence coming into the race. It was a very impressive performance."

"She didn't break well, which has been a problem, but since nobody sent she had enough speed to get out front and off the rail," Wolfendale added.

Bold Affair is now five for nine lifetime and has finished off the board just once while earning $257,880. Last year, she scored in the $200,000 Jostle Stakes at Parx Racing and was third in Monmouth Park's Dearly Precious and Pimlico's Miss Preakness Stakes.

The chestnut daughter of Two Punch is out of the stakes-winning Colonial Affair mare Hunka Hunka Lori Z. Purchased by Reed out of the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Eastern Fall Yearling sale in 1999 for $7,000, Hunka Hunka Lori Z campaigned for Reed and Zanella throughout her career, in which she made 34 starts, won seven races and earned $266,533. Among her victories were the Caesar's Wish Stakes at Pimlico and Stefanita Stakes at Laurel Park.

Bold Affair is Hunka Hunka Lori Z's third winner from three foals—her full sister, Lori Z's Punch, also campaigns for the breeders and has earned $166,325. Hunka Hunka Lori Z has not had a live foal since producing Bold Affair and did not conceive the past two breeding seasons.

Sneaky Lil

Shine Again Stakes

$50,000-guaranteed, 1¼ mi., registered Maryland-bred fillies and mares, 3 & up, non-winners of a sweepstakes. Pimlico, March 31.

Dk.b./br.m., 2006, by Louis Quatorze—Sneaks, by Root Boy. Bred by Richard Blue Jr.; owned by Midwest Thoroughbreds Inc.; trained by Jamie Ness.

Foaled at Murrum Farm, Darlington, Md.

Lifetime
starts	1st	2nd	3rd	earnings
31	6 (1)	9	7	$160,450	(through March 31)

2012: 1st $50,000 Shine Again S, 1¼ mi., registered Md.-bred fillies and mares, 3 & up, non-winners of a sweepstakes, Pimlico, March 31.

In one of the quickest turn arounds an owner could hope for, Sneaky Lil—a $7,500 claimer two weeks earlier—blasted home to win the $50,000 Shine Again Stakes on March 31. In the first stakes of the Pimlico spring meet, restricted to Maryland-bred fillies and mares who had never won a sweepstakes, the 6-year-old daughter of 1996 Preakness Stakes-G1 winner Louis Quatorze drew off to win by 4 lengths under Abel Castellano.

Jamie Ness, the nation's leading trainer by number of wins this year, snagged Sneaky Lil on March 15 for Midwest Thoroughbreds Inc., the nation's leading owner by both money and wins. Sneaky Lil was claimed from the barn of Maryland's leading owner, PTK LLC, and leading trainer, Dane Kobiskie.

PTK LLC dropped the slip for Sneaky Lil in November 2011, shelling out $10,000 to claim her from breeder Richard Blue Jr. and trainer Ann Merryman. In four starts for PTK LLC, Sneaky Lil won twice and was second once.

Making her stakes debut in the Shine Again, which lured a field of eight, Sneaky Lil went off as the fourth choice. Next to last after the break and wide most of the trip before going on the attack entering the far turn, Sneaky Lil withstood a challenge from late-running All About Her before drawing off. Touch the Birds, the betting favorite, finished third, followed by Over the Moon, Lily Quatorze, Wild Kay, Brave as a Lion and Heaven's Voice.

Sneaky Lil completed the mile and a sixteenth in 1:47.01 and paid $14.20.

A winner of six races from 31 starts, for earnings of $160,450, Sneaky Lil is the second foal out of Blue's stakes-winning homebred Sneaks. A daughter of another Blue homebred, graded stakes winner Root Boy who made his stud career at Murmur Farm in Darlington, Sneaks campaigned through three seasons, won the Pearl Necklace and All Brandy Stakes, and earned $154,460.

Sneaks' first four foals, three by Louis Quatorze, are all winners.

The now 15-year-old mare has a current 2-year-old colt by Louis Quatorze, foaled in late May, and was not bred back for 2011. She delivered a filly by Scipion early in the morning of April 2.

MARYLAND-BRED STAKES WINNERS

Catch a Thief back in stakes form at Aqueduct

Getting her first win in more than a year, and her first stakes win since taking the Twist Stakes at Laurel Park in November 2010, Charles Dimino's Maryland-bred champion Catch a Thief rallied in the mud to win the $75,000 Plugged Nickle Stakes at Aqueduct on March 31.

Now 5, the dark bay mare trained by Tim Hills was making her Aqueduct debut. Slow to settle into stride in the one-mile test, she rode the rail at the back of the six-horse field before Eddie Castro urged her while angling her out to the five-path around the far turn. She collared the leader just past the sixteenth-pole and kicked away to win by 1¼ lengths in a final time of 1:38.84. The 7.40-1 third choice, Catch a Thief paid $16.80.

With the score, Catch a Thief upped her record to six wins in 16 career starts, for a lifetime bankroll of $263,485. She earned state-bred championship honors during her 3-year-old season in 2010 when she captured four of seven starts and was second twice, leading Hills to comment, "she is a win machine."

Bred by the late Jim Moran's Elk Manor Farm in North East, Catch a Thief was purchased by Hills on behalf of Long Island, N.Y., resident Dimino for $25,000 at the 2009 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-olds in training sale.

The daughter of Flatter is the most successful runner from six foals of racing age for the Red Ransom mare Nabbed. A half-sister to multiple graded winner and Grade 1-placed Hook and Ladder (by Dixieland Band) from the family of champion and major sire Bernardini, Nabbed was purchased by Moran for $80,000 at the 2000 Barretts 2-year-olds in training sale. Moran sold Nabbed for $15,000 at the 2007 Keeneland November sale while back in foal to Flatter.

Eighttostocatch doubles up at Laurel

Sylvia Heft's Eighttostocatch had to work hard, but survived a pace duel to finish as a repeat winner of the Harrison E. Johnson Memorial Stakes, the closing day feature at Laurel Park on March 24.

Guided by the meet's leading rider, Sheldon Russell, Eighttostocatch was quick to assume the lead in the 1½-mile stakes. Nearing the far turn, Cherokee Artist pushed inside and got to the front to duel with the 1-5 favorite until midstretch, when Eighttostocatch put away his rival en route to collecting the winner's share of the $100,000 purse ($60,000), which included a portion of a $25,000 Maryland Fund purse bonus. Eighttostocatch completed the distance in 1:53.43 over a sealed track labeled good.

Eighttostocatch, Not For Love's 2011 leading earner, now has five stakes victories at his home track in the past year for trainer Tim Keefe. He upped his record to 10 wins (nine at Laurel) in 32 career starts, for earnings of $463,190.

The 6-year-old gelding came into the race off a disappointing fourth in the General George Handicap-G2 on Feb. 20 after a troubled trip.

"I was glad he bounced back," Russell said. "This is a bit of justice because I think with a good trip we win the General George."

Keefe said the gelding will be targeting the $300,000 Pimlico Special-G3 at 1¼ miles on May 18.

"He hasn't missed a beat and works well in-between races," added Keefe. "I just need to keep him fresh and happy."

The chestnut, bred by Dark Hollow Farm and Herringwell Stable, is out of the Nice Catch mare Too Fast to Catch, the dam of additional stakes horses Storm Punch, a stakes winner and Grade 1-placed earner of $310,619, and Southern Man.
